and our history. Has Pennsylvania no honored men, eminent by their services and position, who in this hour of momentous peril to freedom, will step forward as champions for the rights of humanity?

Will this great and free commonwealth lead her powerful influence for the extension of African Slavery over the American Continent? Or will she stand firm in support of her rights, and resist to the mighty interests of the State?

Will she stand firm in support of her rights, and resist to the mighty interests of the State? Or will she stand firm in support of her rights, and resist to the mighty interests of the State?
